

IML - In Mould Labeling

BPK produces special labels for the Injection molding sector both for food containers and for cosmetics, homecare and others.

The products are specifically designed to be used in injection molding and are produced and printed with latest generation offset machines equipped with LEDs to ensure maximum compatibility with food.